BS"D Parashat Netzavim 5785 – Rosh HaShana 5786

There is a popular slogan in Israel יחד נצח that translates as: TOGETHER WE SHALL BE VICTORIOUS. What determines the degree of our victory?

BS"D Parashat Ki Tavo 5785

We are in the midst of a kaleidoscope of events. Before we can decipher the implications of yesterday's tragic event, the next one comes to expropriate our attention. Leading up to the Days of Awe, the current event that is, in my opinion, most relevant to many Jews is WAR.

PARADOX

BS"D Parashiot Matot-Masei 5785

Today we have an empirical case of the “irresistible force meets an immovable object” theory. Additionally, I cannot determine if it is old age or the penetrating introspection that comes in the nine days that direct me to think out of the box; but here I am pondering three issues...

With All Your Might Volume 1

Volumes 1A & 1B

Based on Rabbi Kahana's weekly parasha and holiday messages of the past several years, the title is taken from the verse in the kriyat shema prayer (see introduction below for explanation). The major thrust is to show that the Torah was given to the Jewish people to be kept in Eretz Yisrael, and that the 2000-year-old punishment of exile has ended. [Read more...]

On the Torah

“For Rabbi Kahana, a chacham, a Kohein, and a navi, is kol ku’lo Eretz Yisrael, his entire essence is the Land of Israel, and the embodiment of our sages’ adage, “Whoever resides in the Land of Israel is likened to one who has a God” (Ketubot 110:b). Indeed, the reader will find that studying Rabbi Kahana’s Torah is truly to see the Torah through the pure, unadulterated eyes of Eretz Yisrael.” Rabbi Chaim Richman
