Reflections from Yerushalayim

Thoughts on the Torah, the Land and the Nation of Israel

by Nachman Kahana

I'm happy to share with you news of the release of Rabbi Nachman Kahana's new book, "Reflections from Yerushalayim"! It is a compilation of original philosophic and hashkafic perspectives, ideas and opinions in 7 areas of contemporary Jewish life, the history of the Jewish people, and insights into various Jewish rabbinic sources.

Excerpt from the Foreword by Rabbi Dr. Sholom Gold, Founding

Rabbi of Kehilat Zichron Yosef, Har Nof, and Dean of Avrom Silver Jerusalem College for Adults:

“Rabbi Nachman Kahana has produced a work that will engage the reader in an uplifting adventure of spirit. This sefer bears a message that is absolutely vital for the Jewish people now. There are no secrets here, there is no hidden agenda that lurks beneath the surface, and no subtle nuances that have to be discovered. Rabbi Kahana has a very clearly defined purpose that is the theme of this sefer and is evident from the very beginning. He pulls no punches, gives no quarter, brooks no excuses, and leaves no holds barred.”
