

Interview: Making a Life in Israel

Rabbi Kahana was interviewed by Judy Simon on her Life Lessons program on August 16th for Arutz Sheva Radio. In the interview, Rabbi Kahana discusses his views on the religious divide among various groups of Jews around the world – with a focus on the US and Israel. He also gives us a glimpse into his fascinating family history and what his aliyah to Israel was like 50+ years ago.

“Make a living outside, or make a life in Israel,” says Rabbi Nachman Kahana.

Note: this audio file is approximately 49 minutes long and contains an advertisement at the beginning.

Listen to the program

Button

Button